

Star Bobatoon, Esq.

Speaker Bio

Star Bobatoon is an accomplished attorney, dynamic trainer and award-winning speaker whose high-energy and engaging style makes a lasting impact her audiences and clients.

With over a decade of performance on stage, television and the big screen, Star colors her timely and relevant messages with drama and humor. Using her legal background, Star goes beyond inspiration to convey concrete ideas and practical tools that allow audiences to make real changes in their lives.

Star's background in employment law and diversity counseling helps her connect with diverse audiences further enhancing her effectiveness as a speaker, trainer and executive coach.

Star has trained with and shared the stage both nationally and internationally with world-renowned motivational icon Les Brown. As former Program Manager for Les Brown's speaker training program Star created programs, facilitated training and coached new speakers.

While training and speaking on many legal topics including diversity, discrimination and harassment and Family Medical Leave Act, Star's passion is empowering and inspiring adults and young people in the areas of leadership, personal development and communication.

Star's enthusiasm for life radiates from the stage. Audiences relate her message on a deep and personal level walking away with renewed passion and the determination to reach inside, embrace their inner light and be the STARS they were born to be.

For more information contact Star at www.StarBobatoon.com or Star@StarBobatoon.com